(U) San Francisco – Authorities Announce Arrests of 18-Year-Old, Juveniles in Beating of 70-Year-Old

(U) San Francisco police announced the arrest of suspects wanted in connection with the assault and robbery of an elderly Asian woman on 31 July. The 70-year-old woman was beaten, kicked in the head by multiple attackers, and robbed in broad daylight inside her apartment complex. She says she was standing in front of a building when she was approached by four juveniles. They asked her a question, then gained access to her building where they beat and robbed her of her property. During a press conference Monday, SFPD investigators identified the suspects as Oakland resident Darryl Moore, 18, and three juveniles, ages 11, 13 and 14.

(U) Texas – US Border Patrol Agents Encounter Multiple Large Groups of Migrants Over Weekend

(U) Del Rio – US Border Patrol agents assigned to the Del Rio Sector apprehended multiple large groups of migrants over the past weekend, shortly after they illegally entered the US. The US Border Patrol categorizes groups of 100 or more as “large groups.” The Del Rio Sector accounts for approximately 58-percent of all large groups encountered during the current fiscal year. On 12 August, a group of 214 undocumented migrants illegally crossed into the United States near the city of Eagle Pass. Less than an hour later, another large group of 193 migrants were encountered near Normandy. The next day, a large group of undocumented migrants crossed into the US illegally south of Eagle Pass. That group consisted of mostly single adults, totaling 166. On 14 August, four large groups of migrants immediately surrendered to Border Patrol agents after illegally crossing into the US near Eagle Pass throughout the day. The groups ranged from 130 to 285, yielding a total count of 811 undocumented migrants. All individuals were transported to the nearest processing center and processed in accordance with US Customs and Border Protection (CBP) policies.

(U) Texas – Man Sent to Hospital after SWAT Standoff, Bomb Threat

(U) Round Rock – Round Rock and Austin police have launched an investigation after a suspect's hours-long standoff with police involving a SWAT response and potential bomb threat. The suspect has since been hospitalized. Police said the call originally came in from family members of a man who was suicidal. When officials arrived, police located what they believed could have been explosive devices, noting the man had possibly rigged his home with these devices. Police said a robot was eventually sent inside the residence. The suspect was located unresponsive yet breathing. Police noted the man did not have obvious trauma on his body. Officials reportedly located at least one potentially explosive device.

(U) Mexico – Mexico's Week of Drug Violence Shakes Administration

(U) Tijuana – After days of widespread drug cartel arson and shootings in four states last week, citizens of Mexico are stunned by the stark increase in cartel violence. The attacks killed 11 people, including a young boy and four radio station employees who were randomly shot on the streets of the border city of Ciudad Juarez, across from El Paso, Texas. Two days earlier, more than two dozen convenience stores owned by a well-known national chain were set ablaze in the northern state of Guanajuato. Cars and buses were commandeered and burned in neighboring Jalisco state. And two dozen vehicles were hijacked and set on fire in cities on the California border. Some were quick to brand the arson and shooting attacks as terrorism, while the government has denied that.
